

A short newsletter this week (as Mrs Stewart is away at Cuffley Camp)

What a busy week!

The staff have excelled themselves this week with a range of enrichment activities throughout the school -

Well done to all in Year 6 and Year 4 who were away enjoying activities at the Isle of Wight and Cuffley Camp. The reports back have all been positive and the children have impressed with their fantastic behaviour once again.

Year 4 and Year 6 non residential activities have kept the children busy and entertained throughout the week with lots going on around and away from school, including - a trip to Bletchley Park and Ivinghoe Beacon, a Watford Palace Theatre workshop as part of 'Imagine Watford', outings to Oxhey Park and Cassiobury Park and a trip to Hollywood Bowl.

Year 3 had a great day at Whipsnade Zoo yesterday and

Year 5 have seen a puppet show performed by Year 6 pupils at Bromet School and took part in an athletics tournament at Queens School—reaching the finals to be held in two weeks time—well done!

Keep an eye on our Year group pages on the school website for reports and information.

Still more things happening next week -

Don't forget school is closed on Monday 3rd July for an Inset Day

Wednesday 5th -

School Games Day for the children. All classes will be taking part in sports Activities so everyone needs their sports kit in school.

The PTA Beach Party Disco from 6.30pm to 8.00pm in the school annexe. £1 entry at the door, refreshments on sale. Parent helpers welcome!

PTA Cake Sale—Many thanks for the cake donations last week—we raised £236.40. More cakes will be on sale at the summer disco next week.

A reminder that Watford Field Infants and Nursery School have their Summer Fair tomorrow, 1st July from 1pm-4pm.
