OFSTED REPORT NOVEMBER 2017

Dear Parents,

Following our recent Ofsted Inspection on 23rd and 24th November, I am pleased to send you a copy of the final report published today.

We are delighted that Ofsted judges Field Junior School to be an 'outstanding' school in all areas, which is testament to the hard work of our whole staff and school community. As head teacher I am very proud of the work of my whole staff team and our achievements as a school.

Our children are rightly recognised in the report for their consistent positive attitude and high standards of achievement across the curriculum. The inspectors noted the very positive staff-pupil relationships and were impressed by the confidence and character of our children throughout the school.

'Pupils are impeccably behaved in lessons and around the school. They are polite, thoughtful and considerate towards one another and with adults and visitors. Pupils are also happy, cheerful, chatty and sociable.'

We are grateful the parents of Field Junior School for your continued support of the school - we were grateful for the many positive comments that were made to the inspectors during the inspection

As a school we can now build on our successes to achieve our targets for future development.

I wish you all a very Happy Christmas.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J Henley
Head Teacher
