

It's Friday the 13th, but we are not superstitious. However:

This riddle shouldn't get you stuck
If you walk under one of these
Then beware – you'll have bad luck

See if you know it and find the correct answer in the newsletter.

It is World Diabetes Day on 14th November.

We will be having a 'non- uniform ' day to raise money for Diabetes.
Please could the children who wish to donate wear something blue and bring a donation into school on that day to hand to their class teacher.
